The Department of African and African American Studies presents:

The 2016 SENIOR THESIS SYMPOSIUM:
CONTRIBUTIONS, CHALLENGES, ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Monday, April 4, 2016
10:00am – 12:00pm
Thompson Room, Barker Center
Refreshments Provided

10:00am – 10:20am  Opening Remarks
10:20am – 10:40am  Iyeyinka Omigbodun
Walking “Good Governance” to Nigeria
10:40am – 11:00am  Rachel Knapp
Silencing Bodies: Interrogating the Role of Hegemonic Structures in Conversations Surrounding the Abandonment of Female Genital Cutting in Senegal
11:00am – 11:20am  Paige Woods
The New Negro? An Ethnographic Analysis of Intergenerational Tension within the Atlanta Activist Community
11:20am – 11:40am  Teagan Lende
A Fruitful Business: The Sustainable Nature of Informal Produce Vending and the Rastafarai Moral Economy of Cape Town, South Africa
11:40am – 12:00pm  Colette Bishogo
So Close, Yet So Far: A Comparative Study of Local Governance in Goma, the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Gisenyi, Rwanda