YOU ARE INVITED TO THE AAAS SENIOR THESIS SYMPOSIUM
MARCH 30TH @ 4:00PM

This year, we have a collaborative symposium, drawing together the work of five African American and African Studies concentrators. Jazmine Philips-Acie, Maryanne Chege, Robert Rush, Karabel Sonya, and Junius Williams will be presenting their fantastic thesis research, which they have spent the last year developing. The presentations include:

Maryanne Chege, “Contingency, Compromise, Compassion: Ethnography of a Cancer Ward in Kenya”

Junius Williams “Ties of the Past, Deals for the Future: Oman’s Contemporary Economic Relationship with East Africa”
