

Department of African and African American Studies, Harvard University Reverend Peter J. Gomes Prize in Religion and Ethnicity 2023 Application

For Social responsibility through public service and potential for distinguished contributions to the public good

Eligibility: All Harvard College Seniors

Application deadline: Friday, April 5, 2024

This prize is named for the Reverend Dr. Peter John Gomes, Plummer Professor of Christian Morals and Pusey Minister in the Memorial Church, to honor the work and commitment he has made to Religious Studies, to the study of ethnicity and diversity, and to African and African American Studies. Established in 1995 as a celebration of Gomes's twenty-fifth year of service to Harvard University, this prize is awarded annually to the Harvard College senior who has demonstrated social responsibility through public service and potential for distinguished contributions to the public good.

Seniors must submit the application form, a 1-2 page personal statement and a C.V. to our AAAS Undergraduate and Graduate Studies Coordinator, by e-mail: Keirsten_melbourne@fas.harvard.edu
