

Department of African and African American Studies, Harvard University
Kathryn Ann Huggins Prize
2023 Application

For the most outstanding thesis relating to African American life, history, or culture

Eligibility: All Senior Thesis Writers in Harvard College
Application deadline: Friday, April 8, 2023

This prize was established in 1987 by Kathryn Huggins's brother, the late Professor Nathan I. Huggins, W. E. B. Du Bois Professor of History and of Afro-American Studies, to remember Kathryn by bringing attention to the values she held most dear: personal commitment and dedication to study, humanism through the study of other peoples and cultures, and respect for the marginalized and dispossessed. A prize of up to one thousand dollars is awarded for one or more outstanding senior theses from any department on a topic relating to African American life, history, or culture.

All African and African American Studies concentrators are automatically eligible for this prize and do not need to submit additional copies of their theses for consideration.

All other seniors must submit the application form, a copy of the thesis, a letter of recommendation from their thesis advisor, thesis reader comments, a one-page abstract of the thesis and a C.V. to our AAAS Undergraduate and Graduate Studies Coordinator, by e-mail: Keirsten_Melbourne@fas.harvard.edu
